LEGENDARY VENUES, EPIC EVENTS

A wall of photos featuring grinning comics greets every visitor to the Punch Line...where the mural and décor screams "Party Time!" The interior features a long, well stocked bar, and a large open seating area. Everything faces the red curtains through which comics such as Pablo Francisco, Bobby Lee, Dave Attell and the Punch Line All Stars step to perform five nights a week. Group rates are available for shows, or rent out the entire venue for private events. Whether your plans are corporate or social from 10 to 200, we are confident you and your guests will enjoy an evening of great food and unsurpassed nationally recognized entertainers.
